

8 accept Ingham County Bar Foundation fellowships

Though membership in the Ingham County Bar Foundation is open to anyone or any entity willing to make a $25 contribution, an Ingham County Bar Foundation fellowship is limited to individuals nominated by the Board of Directors of the foundation.

Nominated individuals are those who are viewed as leaders in their profession, have attained a high degree of skill in the practice of law, have demonstrated ethics and civility, as well as a commitment to the Bar, and to their community.

The total number of fellows cannot exceed 5-percent of attorneys licensed in the mid-Michigan area.

There are currently approximately 57 ICBF fellows.

Similar to fellowship with the State Bar of Michigan Fellows Program, those willing to accept the board's nomination as a fellow are required to make a financial commitment to the Ingham County Bar Foundation in the amount of $1,000, payable over the course of 10 years.

Fellowship is a tribute to the individual so nominated and serves to provide the Ingham County Bar Foundation with continuity, economic stability and an infusion of commitment from those willing to sustain the mission of the Ingham County Bar Foundation.

Each year, newly nominated and committed fellows, along with existing fellows, are invited to attend a reception immediately preceding the Ingham County Bar Association's annual dinner.

The Board of Directors of the Ingham County Bar Foundation extends its congratulations and appreciation to the following individuals who have recently accepted their nomination as Fellows of the Ingham County Bar Foundation:

- Mary Chartier
- Bernard Finn
- Richard Krause
- Michael Larkin
- Gary McRay
- Maurice Schoenberger
- Liisa Speaker
- Raymond Buffmyer
