Profiles in leadership: ICBF officers

Who are the Ingham County Bar Foundation leaders? And what do they have in common? Read on to find out 'little known facts' about each of them.

President Susan Leduc

Susan Leduc retired from the Ingham County Prosecutor's office, where she was the Assistant Prosecutor for a number of years. Prior to her work at the Prosecutor's office, she was in private practice.

Sue has a long history of involvement in the community. She has been active in her church, the local bar association, and in a number of local charities and nonprofits. She is the mother of two grown children, and the grandmother of four. In her spare time, she spends a great deal of time with her grandchildren, as well as with her mother, who recently moved to the community.

Vice President Dave Lick

Dave Lick is a partner in Foster, Swift, Collins and Smith. Dave has been a litigator in the business department for numerous years and, has also been involved in numerous community events. He has helped to form three nonprofit community service organizations as well as his family foundation that lends its support to charitable endeavors and has its own golf outing each year to raise funds for worthy causes. He is the father of three grown sons and enjoys spending time with his wife and grandchildren in his spare time.

Treasurer Tom Woods

Tom has been in private practice for over 30 years after a career in state government and is best known, perhaps, for his work as a receiver in state courts. He has been involved for many years with the Michigan Council for Alcohol Problems and copy edited the peer-reviewed international Journal of Drug Education. He has always volunteered at the Ingham County Bar Foundation annual golf outing and the judges retirement dinners.
